

INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM*

2023 - 2024

Capital University

Whether you are looking to pursue a degree at an American university or improve your English skills for a job in your home country, Capital's Intensive English Program (IEP) is designed to get results. With on average five hours of English instruction four days a week, you will gain confidence and proficiency in your English language skills while also safely engaging with a diverse student population.

Benefit from knowledgeable instructors with graduate degrees and an average of more than 5 years of teaching experience.

Learn all language skills: reading, writing, listening, speaking, grammar and critical thinking.

Join workshops (if offered) to supplement your learning: TOEFL preparation, drama, journalism or American film.

Go from the IEP elementary level to the advanced level in just 18 months.

Skip the TOEFL directly after IEP completion - for qualified students applying to Capital for most undergraduate programs.

Be supported by a responsive office of international education within the Center for Global Education.

Receive personalized assistance with immigration and cultural concerns.

Join U.S. and other international students in a variety of activities, enriching your university experience.

Get to know your professors and colleagues on Capital's small and friendly campus located in Bexley, Ohio.

Enjoy Columbus, Ohio - the 14th largest city in the U.S. - located only minutes away from Capital's campus.

SECTIONS AND PLACEMENT

- LEVEL 1 Elementary
- LEVEL 2 Intermediate
- LEVEL 3 High-intermediate

APPLICATION

PROCESS: IEP

Capital University

International students are a growing population at Capital University. We welcome you to apply for IEP only, or for IEP with conditional admission to an undergraduate academic program.

www.capital.edu/esl

We encourage you to plan ahead and submit your application and all the required admission materials early. This is important so that the correct immigration forms can be prepared and sent to you.

Below is information about the application process. After we have received all the necessary documents, you will be sent an acknowledgement of the application by email. Once admitted, you will receive a letter of admission and further instructions. If you intend to study on a student visa (F-1), you will also be sent the form I-20 needed to secure your visa.

Please note: all documents submitted for admission consideration become University property and will not be returned, regardless of the admission decision.*

APPLICATION DEADLINES

FALL SEMESTER	Apply before June 1
SPRING SEMESTER	Apply before October 1
SUMMER SEMESTER	Apply before March 1

The deadlines are flexible for students already in the U.S.

APPLICATION PROCESS

To apply to Capital's IEP, follow the directions on the application form. A completed IEP application includes:
